US$ 100 billion

Deloitte's 2025 Global Insurance Outlook states that for the first time in six years, worldwide insured losses from natural catastrophes surpassed US$ 100 billion without a single event causing over US$ 10 billion in damages. This indicates a broader spread of smaller, yet costly, events. It also underscores a need for the reinsurance industry to closely monitor and reassess underwriting practices as more geographic areas fall into high-risk zones. Economic losses from natural catastrophes reached US$ 357 billion in 2023 globally. Yet only 35% of these losses were insured, leaving a protection gap of 65% or US$ 234 billion. Read more.
